

PRE-CCDA-V CIVIL SOCIETY WORKSHOP, 26TH -27TH OCTOBER, 2015
VICTORIA FALLS, ZIMBABWE
DRAFT AGENDA

Day 1 – 26th October

9:00-9:30	Welcome and introduction Welcome from the organisers Links to CCDA V Introduction to the workshop & objectives
9:30-11:00	Session 1 : Setting the scene for Paris – key challenges and opportunities From iNDCs to a credible improvement cycles that keep us on track for a 1.5 – 2°C adaptable world. Winning and equitable narratives – International, regional and local perspectives from Africa
11:00-11:15	Coffee break
11:15-13:00	Session 2: The Legal Package of 2015 Climate Agreement <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - What the agreement could look like in legal terms: Understanding the legal implications at international and national levels - The potential new sets of rights, risks, opportunities and responsibilities for a range of different constituencies and stakeholders, present and future generations, and non-nation state actors such as cities, NGOs and businesses. - Implementation challenges – getting the right administrative and legislative framework
13:00-14:00	Lunch break
14:00-15:30	Session 3: Building a more climate resilient society – nailing down the adaptation ask in the Paris Agreement Presentations on : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The Global Goal on adaptation - Adequacy and continuous improvement - Better governance and monitoring and evaluation - Dealing with loss & damage - Getting it right on gender and climate change in Paris
15:30-16:00	Coffee break

16:00-17:00	Break-out sessions Break-out session A: Effective resilience from international to community level Break-out session B: Adaptation-Mitigation: the co-benefits <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The agriculture and land-use sector - Renewable energy Break-out session C: preparing, decoding and Implementing INDCs Each session will be moderated with panellists
17:15-18:00	Wrap up of the day and messages for CCDA V 5-10 minutes report from each session, followed by a moderated panel discussion identifying the key recommendations from the first day of workshop to feed into CCDA V Key takeaway messages
19:00	Dinner

Day 2 – 27th October

9:00-9:30	Key take-away from previous day and objectives of the day
9:30-11:00	Session 4 : Building an effective support framework <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The Finance package in Paris - From 100 billion to shifting and mobilizing the trillions - The role of Technology – driving innovation - Innovative sources and Public-Private partnerships
11:00-11:15	Coffee break
11:15-13:00	Session 2: Eyes on Capacity Building <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Building a more effective institutional framework internationally - What the Paris Provisions would look like on capacity building – Africa’s ask - Enhancing the delivery on the ground in Africa - Better Knowledge – Better Education – The stakes for the African Youth - - The salient gender issues/needs in capacity building - A legislative framework rooted in evidence-based decision making

13:00-14:00	Lunch break
14:00-15:30	Session 3: Tracking, Monitoring, Compliance - How the MRV and compliance regime s support progress <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Importance and legal implications of the MRV package in the agreement - Lessons learned to date - Building a fair MRV regime taking account of differing capabilities
15:30-16:00	Coffee break
16:00-17:00	Break-out sessions Break-out session A: The role of NGOs and communities in capacity building Break-out session B: Decoding MRV and Accounting – setting and understand the goals, the policies. Break-out session C: Challenges and opportunities in the monitoring and evaluation in the land use and forestry sector Each session will be moderated with panellists
17:15-18:00	Wrap up and Closure 5-10 minutes report from each session, followed by a moderated panel discussion identifying the key recommendations from the second day of the workshop to feed into CCDA V. Key takeaway messages